CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL

The Canticle

WELCOMES YOU

From The Dean...

A new year is upon us, and we find ourselves living more and more in a world of complexity and dilemma. World-wide financial instability; global warming; the Arab Spring; Occupy Wall Street...interesting times indeed.

Some of you may recall that in 2009 we hosted the Consortium of Endowed Episcopal Parishes' Annual Conference. The keynote speaker was from the Institute for the Future and he told us in that in the face of dilemma we need a story, not an answer: narrative enables us to function in the context of dilemmas. As time passes, this concept really seems to ring true.

Crossword puzzles are to be solved, but life is to be lived. It is naïve of us to imagine that our scientific endeavors will eventually rid us of all of life's challenges. Let's face it, after thousands of years of human civilization, we haven't even conquered the pervasive mosquito.

What we do have, however, is a powerful story. The mystery of the Word made flesh reminds us that our creator is with us and in us and around us at all times and in all places. As my favorite verse in Psalm 31 reminds us, God shows us "the wonders of his love in a besieged city."

As we move through the Sundays of Epiphany tide, the Gospel readings remind us that Jesus' adult ministry was one of inviting people to follow Him: all sorts and conditions of people. He did not begin by identifying one's flaws and offering "self-help" solutions. He began by creating a community, perhaps the most resilient and powerful force on the planet.

This Cathedral parish is, above all else, a community of faith within the context of our Diocese. We are honored to serve as the seat of the Bishop, and to host Diocesan functions, but our greatest honor is to provide a refuge to those battered by life's dilemmas and complexity and offer them a holy space to contemplate the greatest story ever told.

Diocesan Holy Land Pilgrimage

Bishop Thompson plans to host a very special Journey to the Holy Land from October 4-17, 2012. The Dean will be coordinating the arrangements and would like to hear from you if you may be interested in participating.

We can take a maximum of 40 persons, and the full itinerary and pricing should be finalized by late fall of 2011. If you would like to be kept informed as this information becomes available, please send your full contact information to Mrs. Carol Butcher: carolbutcher@cccnola.org

Greetings from Advent House:

It is the beginning of a new year, both exciting and scary at the same time as we reflect upon the hope of the future and the losses of the year past. In my quiet time I came across this brief writing by Rueben Job from his book: When You Pray...

He writes - "We long for a world where righteousness is at home. It is a world envisioned by the prophets and saints of every age. It is a vision that is reflected in Mary's song and is still the prayer on the lips of the faithful everywhere. We yearn for a world where justice, equality, goodness, integrity and well-doing are modeled in industry, government, school, home and individual life. Deep in our hearts we know that it is a way of living that will result in a deep sense of well-being and peace for everyone. However, much as we would like to, most of us do not have the wisdom or power to transform the world. But we do have the wisdom and power to permit God to transform us. In our lives, and now and then in the world where we live, righteousness will be at home. You and I can become those persons who carry the gifts of grace to the world."

Let us not just long for the world where justice, equality, goodness, integrity and well-doing are modeled in our communities but to pray for discernment to find a way be that model.

Activities at Advent House

Women's Recovery Weekend

The Addictions Recovery Ministry of the Diocese of Louisiana will hold a Women's Weekend January 6-8, 2012 at the Solomon Episcopal Conference Center. The theme for the weekend derives from the 11th step of the 12-Step program: Seeking only God's will (and not ours) through prayer and meditation. Sharon Alexander, vicar of St. Michael's, Mandeville and the group will use Henri J.M. Nouwen's The Way of the Heart to explore how to use prayer, meditation, and community discernment to seek God's will for our lives. Registration forms for the weekend are available on the table outside Stuart Hall or online at www.solomoncenter.org. For further information about the program, contact Virginia Blanke at (985)264-4244. For information about scholarship assistance, call Lance Armstrong at (225) 216-0983. Registration deadline is December 27, 2011.

VESTRY NOMINATIONS FOR 2012

A Nominating Committee has been appointed by the Dean to select a slate of candidates for the election of Vestry members to be held at the annual meeting of Christ Church Cathedral parish on Sunday, March 18, 2012. Three new Vestry members will be elected to fill positions vacated by those whose terms of service will be expiring. Members of the Nominating Committee are Jay Miller, chair; Liz Glidewell, Kathy Boyd and Diane Piret. Biographies of all nominees will be published in the February Canticle.

In compliance with the Cathedral Charter, the congregation is reminded of the following provisions:

ARTICLE V. SECTION III, (b):

“Notice of the appointment of the members of the committee and a copy of this Section III of Article V of the Charter shall be mailed to qualified voters no later than forty-five days before the Annual Meeting. Candidates may be suggested to the nominating committee: additionally, not later than ten days before the Annual Meeting, ten qualified voters of the Corporation may submit a petition to the nominating committee to place in nomination the name of a person eligible for election to the Vestry. Not less than twenty days prior to the Annual Meeting the committee shall cause to be mailed to all qualified voters the names and brief biographies of all nominees for membership on the Vestry, whether nominated by committee or by petition. In the event that further nominations are made, either by petition or committee, less than twenty days prior to the Annual Meeting, the committee shall make every reasonable effort to provide the names and biographies of the additional nominees to all qualified voters prior to the annual meeting. At the Annual Meeting no nominations shall be permitted from the floor. The names of all candidates nominated by the committee or by petition, if the nominees are different, shall be placed on a written ballot and distributed at the Annual Meeting to the qualified voters.”

“(c) Nominees for membership on the Vestry shall be elected by the qualified voters of the Corporation at each Annual Meeting. All elections of Vestrymen shall be conducted by written ballot and shall be under the supervision of their supervisors of election, who shall be qualified voters of the Corporation, other than members of the Vestry, and who shall be appointed by the Dean at the Annual Meeting. Those nominees receiving the greatest number of votes shall be elected to fill the vacancies. For all nominees receiving such equal number of votes to be elected, the balloting shall continue between such nominees until the tie be broken and the necessary plurality be obtained.”

ARTICLE IV

I. “The membership of this Corporation shall consist of those persons whose names are now, or may hereafter be entered, on the Parish Register of the Corporation as a result of baptism, transfer, reception, or confirmation.”

II. “The voters of this Corporation at annual and other meetings of the Corporation shall possess those qualifications as may from time to time be set forth in the Canons of the Diocese of Louisiana.” [See below]

III. “The Parish Register of the Corporation shall be final and conclusive in all respects as to membership in the Corporation; and the books of the Treasurer of the corporation shall be conclusive as to the contributions of members, requisite to suffrage.”

CANON 19, SECTION 2:

“Those entitled to vote at an annual parish meeting shall be communicants in good standing of the Parish who are at least eighteen (18) years of age, and who have been contributors of record toward the support of the parish during the six (6) months next preceding the meeting.”

Christmas Stories

Many people don't realize it, but the New Testament tells us about Christmas in several ways.

One is the story in Matthew's gospel. It is patriarchal, and focuses on politics and power. It traces Jesus' human descent from Adam through David to Joseph. The announcement of his impending birth is made to Joseph, not Mary. After Jesus' birth, wise men come bringing gifts which, taken together, announce a revolution: gold for kingship, pure incense for deity, myrrh for sacrifice. The magi were soothsayers, who traveled from court to court dispensing flattery and seeking handouts. In Bethlehem, they encounter something authentic, and offer their treasures rather than looking for a tip. King Herod wanted a full report, but the wise men realize that he's a dangerous paranoid fruitcake and sneak out of town. Then Herod orders the killing of every child in Bethlehem under the age of two, hoping to bump off his unidentified rival in the process. We remember these children as 'the Holy Innocents.' They have come to stand for those we glibly refer to as 'collateral damage'--all the innocent people inadvertently destroyed by the machinations of the powerful. An angel warns Joseph of danger, and the Holy Family flees to Egypt, like Jacob's family in Genesis. When Herod dies, an angel tells Joseph to return. He goes to Galilee, a safer location, far from the seat of power, a sort of California for first century Palestine. The story is like a James Bond flick with camels. The Messiah bests the evil king, the gods of Egypt, the occupying Romans, and the collaborating Temple priests, and inaugurates God's Kingdom of righteousness and peace. It's very macho. No mushy love stuff here!

The other story, however, is our favorite. It is told by Luke, the Gentile physician who was Paul's companion. It is gentle and tender, like a family flick, adorned by the wonderful canticles we use in the Daily Offices--Benedictus, Magnificat, and Nunc dimittis. It is about the redemption of human life. The birth of John the Baptist, Jesus' cousin and advance man, is a providential preparation for his coming. The announcement of his birth is made to Mary, who has the option of saying no. The angel names Jesus, but, by the time Mary is ready to deliver, the holy family is away from home in response to a Roman decree requiring everyone to return to his home town--possibly to sign a petition asking the Roman Senate to name Augustus the father of his country. Mary and Joseph can't find a place to stay. The biblical text suggests that Jesus might have been born out of doors, with a nearby feed trough for a bed. An angel informs nearby shepherds, who get, not only news, but a vision of heaven. It's all very quiet and local until Jesus is presented in the Temple, as the Law of Moses requires. Then Simeon and Anna bless the child and tell that he is here for the rising and fall of many.

We have taken these two stories and whirled them in the blender of ceremony, and come up with one slightly incoherent narrative--the version that appears in every pageant and that is fixed in everyone's mind. Jesus is born. The innocents are killed. The Holy Family rushes to Egypt, then rushes back to Palestine in order to be there when the Wise Men arrive--oddly, after the slaughter. Then they show up in the Temple. It's kind of like some home videos--heart warming, but don't look for total coherence.

However, the new single story manages to get across the point: Jesus is not merely a cute seasonal trend. He is about redemption, justice and love, about the destiny of human kind. After many sins, there is for us a vast forgiveness and newness of life. We hear the story so that we may know that we have been changed. That's also why we love it. The hymn that opens John's gospel celebrates it all: "The Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth. And we have beheld his glory...."

Remember Your Baptism!

It is good to remember baptisms with a special celebration. In an effort to help us all remember our baptism, we print a list of baptismal anniversaries monthly. Like the birthday list, our records may not be complete. If the anniversary of your baptism isn't listed, please call the church office and let us know the date.

Parents, a baptismal anniversary is a great time to celebrate with your children. Pull out pictures, their baptismal candle or towel and talk about what happened on that special day. You might burn their baptismal candle during a special family celebration.

TWELFTH NIGHT

The Christian feast of the Nativity, celebrated on December 25, begins a twelve day festival season which ends, predictably, on the twelfth day, January 5. The evening of January 5, is commonly referred to as Twelfth Night. The feast of the Epiphany, celebrated on January 6, inaugurates a distinct season in the Christian year.
