CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL

The Canticle

THE
CHURCH
WELCOMES YOU

From The Dean...

The Feast of the Presentation (February 2) marks a decade since the Cathedral Vestry elected me as Dean. What an adventure we have shared together thus far.

Last year alone saw the birth of Real Presence, the completion of our wheelchair ramp (Dean Rowland tells me that this was a Vestry goal as far back as the 1970's) and there were even two weddings and an adoption in the lives of the Parish Clergy!

As we move into 2012 the Holy Spirit continues to move in new and exciting ways in the life of the Cathedral. New outreach and education ministries are being explored, and we are always seeking to be more effective in welcoming and incorporating new members into our community. I pray that each of you, new or long established, will be richly blessed by God's abundant grace in the year to come, and will find ways to share ever more deeply in our common life. You are the Church, and our work is only achieved because you respond to God's perpetual invitation to know, love and serve him.

All are invited to the annual Hermes Parade Party Fundraiser the Friday before Mardi Gras! Doors to Stuart Hall (6th Street entrance) will open at 5:30 pm for pre-parade festivities.

The menu is spaghetti & sauce, salad, bread and King Cake.

This annual event is a fund-raiser that benefits a Heifer International project in Haiti - www.heifer.org. Stuart Hall will remain open until 9 pm for food, fellowship and clean bathrooms. Hope to see you there! Be sure and tell your friends.

We need your help to make the fundraiser a success.

Please sign up to bring a batch of your favorite spaghetti sauce, a loaf of bread, a bag of salad mix, a King Cake, some soft drinks or wine. Sign up sheets are posted in the chapel, cathedral and on the main bulletin board leading to Stuart Hall. Volunteers are also needed to fill a variety of jobs; decorating crew, kitchen helpers, ticket takers, drink servers, food runners and clean up crew. A complete list is posted in Stuart Hall. 6 PM ~ Cathedral

The Ash Wednesday liturgy speaks to people of all ages so begin Lent as a family if you have children at home. Children experience Mardi Gras with their families, let them experience our memorable Ash Wednesday service as well. Parents are encouraged to bring children of all ages to this service. Take a moment before you arrive to let them know what to expect - ashes placed on their foreheads in the shape of a cross.

Child care is provided for both the 12:15 PM and 6 PM services for our youngest children.

Coffee Hour Class on Sundays during Lent

Tuesday evenings during Lent at Advent House

The Coffee Hour Class will be a brief overview of what specific authors such as CS Lewis have to say about the topic with the Tuesday evening session allowing for a more in-depth look.

Watch for more details in the bulletin and the weekly e-blasts. If you do not receive the weekly e-blasts, please email lauriebailey@cccnola.org so you can be added to the mailing list.

AN INVITATION FOR ALL

"Dear People of God: The first Christians observed with great devotion the days of our Lord's passion and resurrection, and it became the custom of the church to prepare for them by a season of penitence and fasting... I invite you, therefore, in the name of the Church, to the observance of a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God's Holy Word." BCP, pg. 265.

This invitation is part of our Ash Wednesday service and is an invitation for all of us; no matter our age or station.

There are many things one can do to accept this invitation. Giving up something, say a favorite food or activity, is one option. However, Lent can be much more than just giving things up; one can add something to one's life instead. Doing something extra, regularly attending Sunday School or a weekday worship service or Bible Study on Wednesday, reading a devotional booklet, working on a service project, and reading the Bible daily are all options.

There are weekday services in the Chapel at 12:15 PM Monday - Friday and 9:30 AM on Saturday - add one to your schedule (you'll be out in less than an hour). Lenten Devotional Booklets will be in the back of the Cathedral, Chapel and in Stuart Hall - pick one up and read it everyday. Use a Mite Box to collect money for Heifer International's Haiti Project.

Whether you give something up, add something or do both, you and your family are invited to observe a Holy Lent.

FILL A MITE BOX DURING LENT

A beloved tradition of Lent is to make a special Lenten offering of money gathered in a mite box; you may have done this when you were a child. Well, mite boxes are for adults, too!

Our Lenten Offering is sent each year to Heifer International which provides animals and the knowledge to care for them to people in need around the world. Heifer has begun a new project in Haiti and our money will go to support that specific project. You can read about it at www.heifer.org.

Mite boxes will be in the back of the cathedral, chapel and in Stuart Hall soon. Please pick one up, put it in a prominent place in your home and fill it with loose change or folding money during Lent. A printed sheet of possible daily donations (10 cents for every milk product in your home, etc) will be in basket as well. We gather full mite boxes on Easter Sunday. Fill as many as you can during the forty days of Lent!

VESTRY NOMINATIONS FOR 2012

The Annual Parish Meeting of Christ Church Cathedral parish is on Sunday, March 18, 2012. Three new Vestry members will be elected to fill positions vacated by those whose terms of service will be expiring. Short biographies of the nominees are below.

Chris Beary

Page and I have been members of the Cathedral since 1998. All of our children (Claiborne, Caroline, Claire and Mary Catherine) were baptized here. They are active participants in Christian formation and serve in various capacities.

I previously served on the Vestry from 2003 until 2007; the last three years as Senior Warden. During that time, I assisted the Dean in the creation of The Jericho Road Episcopal Housing Initiative. Since 2006, I have served as Jericho Road's Treasurer and on its Executive Committee. After leaving the Vestry, I lead the Advent House Capital Campaign to a successful endowment of that ministry in perpetuity.

I am currently involved in EFM and, previously, I participated in DOCC twice. I have agreed to serve as the Treasurer of the Cathedral to assist in facilitating the transfer of administrative responsibilities of Jericho Road to the Cathedral. This transition is brought about as the result of the Diocese transferring Jericho Road to the Cathedral. I look forward to a successful transition.

It would be my honor to serve you again on the Vestry.

Sam Buckley

My wife, Jennifer, and I have been members of the Cathedral for over 20 years and were, in fact, married here. Our children, Sam and Matthew, have served as acolytes and readers. I have previously served on the Vestry, numerous Committees, and as Senior Warden. Jennifer and I have both been catechists in the Catechesis of the Good Shepard program for well over 10 years and I have served as an usher for a comparable period.

Professionally, Jennifer and I are both attorneys and practice together in our own law firm.

If elected, I would be honored to again serve on the Vestry and to continue to assist the Cathedral in any way I can.

Julio Figueroa

I have been a member of Christ Church Cathedral since 1993 and involved in several ministries including the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, Disciples of Christ in Community, Advent House, and Real Presence planning group. I also served on the vestry once in the past.

I am married to Annette Figueroa and the proud parent of three children: Amanda, Julian, and Elena. Since 1993, I have been on faculty in the Department of Medicine at LSU School of Medicine in the Section of Infectious Diseases. In that capacity, I am involved in clinical teaching and administration in the medical school and for several hospitals in New Orleans. I have also been involved in other local organizations including St. Paul's Episcopal School and Lambeth House.

If elected to the vestry, I hope to continue supporting the community that has nurtured my family and me in whatever capacity is needed.

Greetings from Advent House:

Did you know the English Language only provides one word for love. All other languages have many words to depict this complicated feeling. CS Lewis has written an excellent book exploring the Greek understanding through four types of love.

We will begin the book Four Loves by CS Lewis on Monday, February 27.

Please get a copy of the book and come for an informative discussion of what love is and isn't.

Book Club meets on Mondays from 1:00 to 2:30 p.m. at Advent House.

Wednesday Morning Bible Study

Dean duPlantier begins a study of the Boof of Psalms on Wednesday mornings at 11 a.m. on February 29. Class will end in time for you to attend the 12:15 p.m. service in the Chapel. Bring your favorite Bible and delve into the many emotions found in the Psalms.

From the Theologian in Residence...

ON NEW YEAR'S DAY, a new wrinkle appeared in Anglican/Roman Catholic relationships. A nation-wide American Roman Catholic diocese, under the aegis of the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of St. Peter, was officially established to receive ex-Anglican congregations and clergy, some coming from the Episcopal Church, and some from Anglican break-away groups. Its headquarters will be in Houston, and it will be led by Jeffrey N. Steenson, resigned Episcopal Bishop of the Diocese of the Rio Grande.

STEENSON left the Episcopal Church in 2007, only two years after promising, at his consecration, "to conform to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of The Episcopal Church." He was re-ordained to the priesthood in 2009 under an existing provision for Anglicans, but, because he is married, he cannot become a bishop. He will, nevertheless, be a member of the American Conference of Catholic Bishops but report directly to the Vatican.

THE ORDINARIATE is presented as a pastoral initiative toward disaffected Anglicans on the part of the papacy. It allows disaffected priests and parishes to be received together as groups into the Roman Church. Suggestions that it is opportunistic sheep-stealing are piously denied. "It is just meeting a need" say its proponents. That may be partly true, but there's more to it than that.

*The ordinariate was established without notice or consultation, despite on-going ecumenical conversations between Anglicans and Roman Catholics. Even the Archbishop of Canterbury was taken by surprise. A spokesperson described it as 'a reconciliation effort,' but it seems more expressive of the persistent Roman Catholic tendency to equate unity with surrender. The idea--including the appointment of Steenson--seems flung-together, as though too much discussion might have caused the plan to be abandoned. The ordinariate probably won't hurt us very much. The people involved are already gone or leaving. However, it makes it harder to view the Roman Church as a trusted friend in Christ with whom we share a common concern for the unity of the Church. It also prioritizes a retrogressive piety. We're back to the pilgrims of the night approaching the only true Church seeking refuge. The hidden agenda of this initiative is a retreat from Vatican II: it abandons serious ecumenism and suggests that unsettling ideas are tainted with evil.

*There is a reward for the papacy in the ordinariate: it will involve and attract clergy and laity who oppose reform of the liturgy, changing the role of women in the Church, or revising the Church's views on sexuality. Their presence will discourage agitation for reform in these areas by stressing that they are on the papal black list. The title of the initiative is instructive: it is a personal project of Benedict XVI, protected by the aegis of infallibility that surrounds the papacy, so don't mess with it! This is how attitudes become policy.

WILL THE ORDINARIATE BE EFFECTIVE? There are already some Anglican-rite parishes (mostly in Texas and Pennsylvania), which the ordinariate will incorporate. When more are involved, will the Anglican 'flavor' survive, or have enough appeal to keep it viable? Clerical celibacy will still be the rule. The married clergy will eventually disappear. The future style of priesthood will be Roman, not Anglican. It will retain some elements of Anglican liturgy and piety, resulting in something like an old-fashioned Anglo-Catholic Eucharistic celebration, which mixed the Book of Common Prayer with texts from the Latin rite. However, given the Roman Church's general klutziness about liturgy and liturgical texts, the Anglican flavor may not last much beyond this generation, because Anglican worship rests more upon an experienced tradition than upon rules and regulations. Ordinariate parishes will not be exempt from the Roman Church's efficient and authoritarian administration, or from Roman Catholicism's general culture. How that will go over with ex-Anglicans who are used to more liberty and different expectations, no one knows. Even more difficult will be learning to be for something, when your piety has perhaps been built upon a habit of discontent, of being against things. Many Anglican splinter groups have found that the sudden absence of an enemy was gravely disorienting. That is why division, once begun, is so difficult to stop, and why the Lord counsels us against it.

Real Presence

~an encounter with the sacred

A contemplative twilight service of Holy Eucharist for those seeking holy silence.

Real Presence celebrates the mystery of God's grace through worship that engages the heart, the mind and the senses.

Invite a friend to attend this informal service. Casual dress is appropriate.

Remember Your Baptism!

It is good to remember baptisms with a special celebration. In an effort to help us all remember our baptism, we print a list of baptismal anniversaries monthly. Like the birthday list, our records may not be complete. If the anniversary of your baptism isn't listed, please call the church office and let us know the date.

Parents, a baptismal anniversary is a great time to celebrate with your children. Pull out pictures, their baptismal candle or towel and talk about what happened on that special day. You might burn their baptismal candle during a special family celebration.

Dear David,

Thank you very much for your recent contribution of a Wurlitzer Piano for the SECC Chapel and in support of SECC Sunday 2011. The piano is beautiful and is a wonderful addition to the Chapel of the Holy Cross. We are planning to place a plaque on the Piano so that future visitors may see the Cathedrals support of the SECC and Chapel.

We also have received a very nice donation from the LA Episcopal Clergy Association to help us maintain and tune the piano well into the future.

Thank you for your generosity and support and we look forward to seeing you here again soon.

Faithfully Yours,
