

November, 2015

From The Dean . . .

In 1940, responding to the treatment of European Jews under the Nazi regime, Bishop Paul Jones of the Diocese of Southern Ohio began rigorously encouraging the Episcopal Church to create a designated fund to address the physical and social needs of the World's marginalized peoples. This was the driving force that led to the creation of the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief by the Episcopal General Convention. This became the instrument of the Episcopal Church's mission to "seek and serve Christ in all persons loving our neighbor as ourselves" and branched out from European war refugees to China, Africa, the Middle East, Korea and all parts in between. By the 1960's the Fund was active in supporting Cuban refugees and, even closer to home, the victims of 1965 Hurricane Betsy in Louisiana. World Hunger became another focal point of the fund through the 1970's and 80's. By 2000, the fund had ventured well beyond disaster relief and was focusing as well on development of long term sustainable solutions to the World's problems and the General Convention of that year resolved to change the name to Episcopal Relief and Development.

This year, Episcopal Relief and Development is commemorating 75 years of bringing healing and hope to a troubled World, and as part of this anniversary, they have created a photo exhibit that is visiting several Parishes around the Country. During Advent, this Exhibit will be on display in the Cathedral just next to the Sixth Street doors (across from the Real Presence Prayer Station area).

In addition, I am pleased to welcome the President of Episcopal Relief and Development, Mr. Rob Radtke as our preacher for the 10AM Mass on December 13 and a reader at Lessons and Carols later that same day.

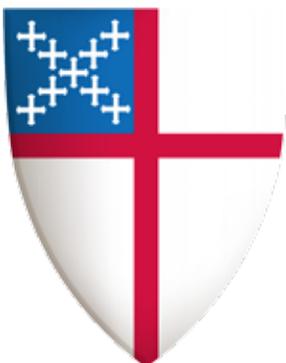

Rob began in this position just months before Hurricane Katrina, and has been a great friend to our City and Region in the intervening decade. Indeed, the initial $2.3 million of funding for the Jericho Road Episcopal Housing Initiative came from Episcopal Relief and Development, and they have remained a continuous source of wisdom and advice throughout the evolution of the Cathedral's signature community outreach ministry.

I hope you will be with us for one or both of these opportunities to greet Rob, and be sure to take some time to visit the Photo exhibit. In this month when our thoughts turn to giving thanks, Episcopal Relief and Development certainly deserves our deepest gratitude for their transformational work here, and around the globe.

O God, our times are in your hands: Look with favor, we pray, on your servants as they begin another year. Grant that they may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen their trust in your goodness all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

If your name isn't listed, we don't have your date of birth in our records. Please send an e-mail to acs@cccnola.org or call the cathedral office and we'll be sure to wish you a Happy Birthday next year!

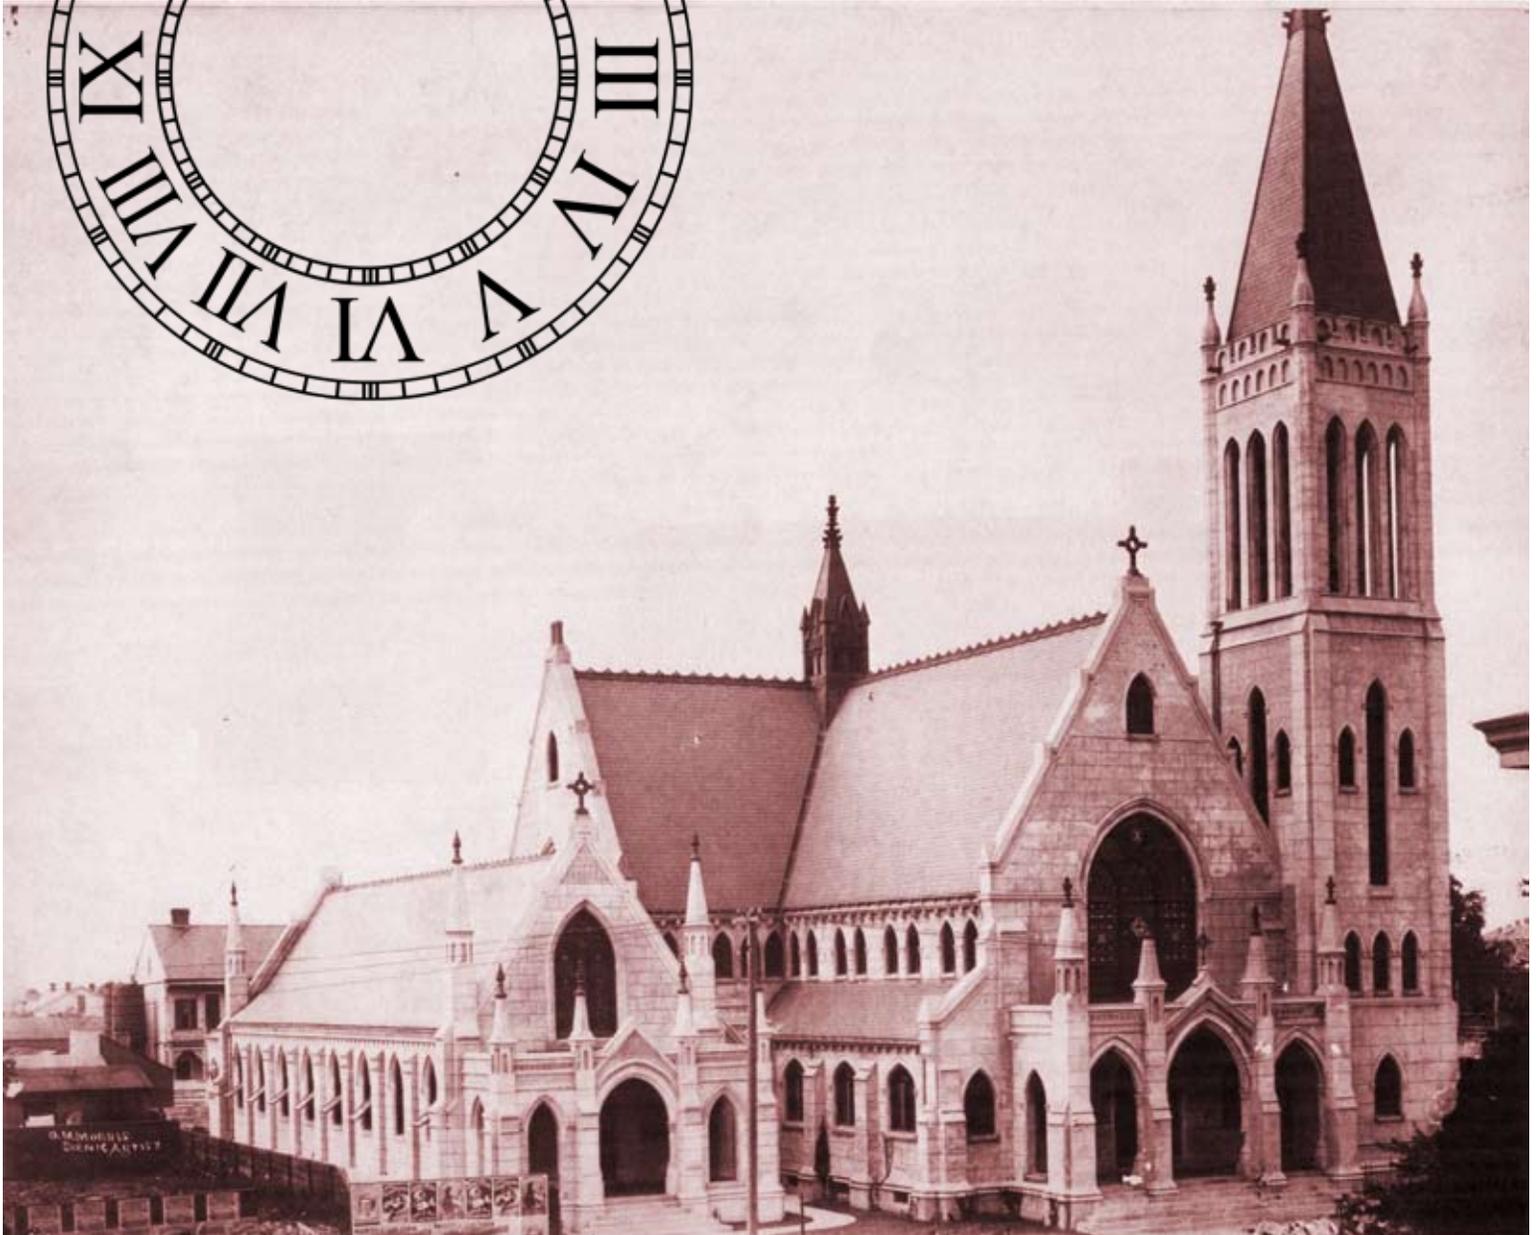

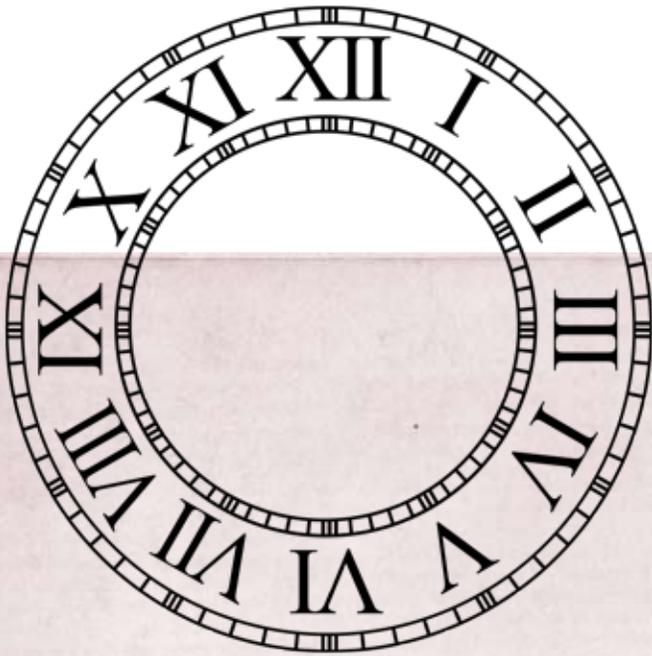

Peterborough Cathedral Choir. He then held organ scholarships at Rochester, Norwich and St. Paul's Cathedral, London, following which he became the Director of Music at All Saints' Church, Northampton. From there he went to St. Albans Cathedral as the Assistant Master of Music and Director of the Abbey Girls' Choir, his last appointment before assuming the duties as Organist at St. Paul's, London.

Apart from St. Paul's Cathedral, Mr. Johnson has performed as soloist and continuo player with premier British orchestras in including the London Symphony Orchestra, the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, the London Mozart Players, the City of London Sinfonia, the London Baroque and the Cardinall's Musick. His wide-ranging music making also included playing the organ on the soundtrack for the Hollywood blockbuster movie the Grand Budapest Hotel, the soundtrack of which won an Oscar and a Grammy award in the U.S. and a Bafta award in the U.K.

Daylight Savings Time Ends!

*Don't forget
to set your clocks back on Sunday, November 1!!*

WE DID IT! "We" meaning not only those of us at Jericho Road, but the entire City of New Orleans and anyone around the world who had anything to do with experiencing Hurricane Katrina as a survivor and/or as a supporter. And, "did it!" meaning we made it through a milestone date – the 10 year anniversary of The Storm!

Jericho Road joined the City of New Orleans in recognizing this date and celebrating how far we've come as a community since August 29, 2005. Jericho Road's experiences at the 10 year anniversary shared one primary characteristic of the relief and recovery time immediately after Katrina – the experience of the human spirit! It was only because we had many individuals who were able to come together as one group and tackle a big project that we were able to complete it in a few hours and have some fun while doing so.

On August 29, 2015 Jericho Road participated in the City of New Orleans K10 Day of Service event. Jericho Road was an approved volunteer worksite for anyone who wanted to sign up to give back to the New Orleans community as a way to commemorate how much WE've accomplished. Our project for the day was to apply Jericho Road's 4-layer-burrito grass retardation method to four adjacent vacant lots in Central City. We needed folks to do the hard work of installing the materials that complete the 4-layer-burrito application, people to man our registration table, pass out snacks and water as needed serve as first aid in case of any medical needs, and clean up. A total of 88 volunteers showed up starting at 7:30am filling all these roles including residents from the community we serve, parishioners from Episcopal Churches like Christ Church Cathedral, students from schools in New Orleans and Baton Rouge, vendors we use, partners from funding organizations, personal friends and people we've never met before.

In addition to people coming out to help with our project on the K10 Day of Service, Jericho Road received over $7,500 in donations in recognition of the anniversary of Hurricane Katrina. Thank you to those of you near and far who gave of your time and/or your treasure to support the community development work that is Jericho Road's mission. As a small non-profit, every hand and every dollar makes a meaningful difference!

Special thanks goes out to Christ Church Cathedral members pictured here for spending part of their day on August 20 with us!!!

Coffee Hour

Visitors to the cathedral are often surprised by our Coffee Hour. I've heard many a person say they were going to go home and tell their church about our hospitality. You can help us keep up our reputation for great hospitality by volunteering to host Coffee Hour one Sunday. Drinks are provided by the cathedral and volunteers provide their choice of food. Host with a friend or two. If you have no time to shop and prepare food, donations are always gladly accepted. For additional information/volunteer, contact Kathy Boyd, 891-1360 or kboydaj@yahoo.com. Recent hosts: Ray Goeller, Jim Buck, Jennifer Cheatham, Alan Brackett, Carolyn Rogers, Sue Blankenship, Susan Carswell, Troy Buttone, Kathy Boyd, Frances Beverly, and Les Bradfield.

Many thanks to all!

The sign-up sheet for the remainder of the year is posted in Stuart Hall with open dates. Please sign up today.

Quiet Days

The next Quiet Day at Advent House will be Friday, November 20. We begin with centering prayer at 10:00 and after 20 minutes participants may use the time in silence to read, journal, pray, or any other spiritual practice. We will have another time of centering prayer at 2:00 and conclude at 2:30. Participants are free to come and go during this day of silence. There is a kitchen should you wish to bring lunch. Coffee and tea are provided.

"Contemplative prayer is the opening of the mind and heart – our whole being – to God, the Ultimate Mystery, beyond thoughts, words, and emotions. Centering prayer is a method designed to facilitate the development of contemplative prayer by preparing our faculties to cooperate with this gift." Father Thomas Keating

From the Archdeacon

An Enlightening Read
Deacon Priscilla Maumus

Though it has been a television series for several seasons, Piper Kerman's memoir Orange is the New Black is worth a good read and some reflection, especially in a state whose incarceration rate is the highest in the world and five times of that of repressive regimes like Iran.

Not only is it surprising as the story of a Smith College graduate who finds herself incarcerated long after a one-time youthful crime, but also as an expose of the soul-killing cruelties of even a minimum security prison, and for the chronicle of her personal transformation through the small kindnesses and caring of her inmate community.

The relative stability and predictability of that community contrasts sharply with what awaits most inmates on their release, sometimes from long mandated sentences for nonviolent crimes. Whereas Piper is blessed with an education, a fiancée, a caring family, and a waiting job, most inmates dread returning to crumbling neighborhoods with little training or preparation, few places they can afford to live, and even fewer job prospects. Consequently, they live in continual hope of release, but also terror of what they will find on the outside when they get their street clothes back and their $28.00 check and are shown the door.

Two months ago, you read Robert Clepper's informative article on ways to welcome "returning citizens" back into the community. In early November, I will be going to a national conference on Criminal Justice Reform and will keep you informed of new initiatives.

In the meantime, read Orange is the New Black. It is an eye-opening and rewarding read.

Stewardship

What the Cathedral means to me

Wyatt Blankingship

"Sue and I have been members of the Cathedral since we came to New Orleans over 40 years ago. Our two daughters grew up at the Cathedral and were also married here. Two of our grandchildren were baptized at the Cathedral. The Cathedral is our spiritual home. We have many good friends at the Cathedral and enjoy the diversity of our congregation and how the Cathedral has embraced the community by reaching out to and helping the less fortunate."

Verna Barnett Lombard

I may not always remember the sermon and although I find immense comfort in the rituals of words and the Eucharist, my joy comes from the music performed each Sunday at the Cathedral. Sometimes I'll even find myself humming a fragment from Sunday as late in the week as Thursday. God speaks to us in different ways when we choose to hear the message, which could come from a psalm or hymn. It is truly a blessing to have a wonderful choir uplift our souls with beautiful music each week, coordinated by our very gifted Director of Music, Jarrett Follette. While there are so many interesting facets to this magnificent, historical structure and the people who worship there, for me the music will always be that special glue that joins and transitions the service from one part to another and lifts us up so we can be closer to God.

Jesse George

Christ Church Cathedral is my spiritual home. It has been a constant in my life since I moved to New Orleans 10 years ago. It is the place where Amanda and I were married, the place where we baptized our son, Robin. The Cathedral community and its many ministries are continual sources of comfort and strength.

The Bishop of Louisiana

The Rev. Bridget Tierney, Director
Advent House
1637 Seventh Street
New Orleans, LA 70115

Dear Bridget+,

Please accept my sincere appreciation for making Bishop Griselda Delgado del Carpio's visit a success. Many people chipped in to make sure Bishop Griselda, her husband, the Reverend Gerardo Logildes Coroas, and her traveling companion, Marilyn Peterson, had a fruitful visit.

From the moment they arrived, our Diocese opened its arms to help Bishop Griselda better understand our ministries and our willingness for a Diocesan relationship between Cuba and Louisiana. We will see what the future holds for all of us.

Again thank you for your interest and support.

Faithfully, I am,

The Rt. Rev'd Morris K. Thompson, Jr.
Bishop of Louisiana

LIFT YOUR GAZE - LIFT YOUR HEART YOGA IN THE CATHEDRAL

Cathedrals evolved to become spaces which invite the eyes and the heart to lift toward the heavens. The arches point the way for eyes to lift; the stained light from windows high above entice the vision higher; and the lofty vaulted ceilings complete the illusion.

Yoga teaches that the heart follows the eyes. This yoga practice will focus on opening the heart to loving kindness, accepting the human-ness of our selves and others and creating a lightness in the heart. But 'you gotta move' to teach your heart to open.

Free Legal Clinics Continue

The Pro Bono Legal Project is partnering with the Cathedral and Jericho Road to sponsor free legal clinics at the Cathedral. If you know someone (a friend, an employee, a neighbor) who might benefit from legal advice about bankruptcy, foreclosure, debt collection harassment, contract disputes, wills, or landlord issues, encourage them to come to the Cathedral at 10:00 AM on Saturday, November 14. No appointments are necessary and no fees are charged. Enter by the 6th Street door (3rd door down from the St. Charles Avenue.) For more information, call (504) 581-4043. Thanks to Vestry member Jesse George for arranging this service.
